Brand Health GmbH

prepares for more brand surgeries with StageTools for Microsoft Teams.

“Our meeting efficiency has improved significantly because there is almost no need to switch applications and decisions are made live with the customer.”

Alfred Ernst, CEO Brand Health GmbH

Challenge

Advertising agency Brand Health GmbH faced challenges with efficient and well-documented client meetings. Meeting minutes were recorded manually, often requiring multiple rounds of corrections.

Solution

Brand Health implemented StageTools for Teams and online meetings became instantly more efficient and documented.

Results

With StageTools for Teams, Brand Health uses meeting time much more efficiently and has greater clarity on decisions.
